Thomas E. Dobson CEO Whataburger

Chair of the Day: Amy Contreras

Thomas E. Dobson has held various positions with Whataburger since 1961 when he started working in the restaurants. In 1967 he started working in the home office in numerous positions to learn the business while going to school at Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos. He returned in 1972 to work full time in the business. In 1993 he was named President & CEO and now holds the title of Chairman of the Board. The family owned business was founded in 1950. Tom Dobson is one of three children of company founders the late Harmon and Grace Dobson. Whataburger operates 776 restaurants in 10 states, employing over 31,300 team members with annual sales over $1.6 billion. In addition he is Managing Partner of Dobson Properties, a real estate investment partnership, and President and CEO of Quality Broadcasting, Inc., which owns and operates KFTX, "Real Country" radio in Corpus Christi, Texas.

A leader in the community, Mr. Dobson is active in many non-profit organizations that focus on developing youth as the leaders of tomorrow. He is past Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Driscoll Foundation in Corpus Christi and is currently a trustee. Mr. Dobson is a current member and Director of the Kenedy Memorial Foundation of Corpus Christi. He is also on the Board of Directors of Respite Care, St. Phillip's College Presidents Advisory Board and Cancer Therapy and Research Center. Mr. Dobson is past president on the Board of Trustees of the Texas State Aquarium in Corpus Christi and is currently a trustee. He is past chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, San Antonio Branch. Mr. Dobson was a recipient of the Corpus Christi Business Hall of Fame Award by Junior Achievement of the Coastal Bend, he was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame in November 2013 and in March 2015 he was a recipient of the San Antonio Business Hall of Fame Award by Junior Achievement.

Meeting Information

Rotary meets every Wednesday at 12:00
at the Bright Shawl, 819 Augusta (at McCullough)

You know Rotary motto is "Service Above Self." We've had some great service opportunities this year and we're close to our club goal of 2,000 hours of service. Are you ready to help us achieve our goal and reach out to the community?

Here are some upcoming service projects. Sign up for one or more!

The First Tee at Valero Texas Open

For the fourth straight year, our club will escort students in The First Tee program to VTO to watch professional golf, attend a golf clinic, watch a trip shot artist and more.

Details:

- Saturday, March 28
- 8 am – 4 pm
- Meet at VTO
- 4-5 Rotarians to escort groups of 20-25 students
- Organized by the Young Members Board

Interested? Email assistant@rotarysa.org or call 222-8242, 11

Rotary Read and Roll Golf Classic

This year's golf tournament will be held at the AT&T Canyon Course at TPC San Antonio. Volunteers will be needed to help with registration, contests and more.

Details:

- Thursday, April 9
- AT&T Canyon Course at TPC
- Various service opportunities, various shifts

Want to learn more? Email assistant@rotarysa.org or call 222-8242, 11

Rotary Kingdom Keepers

As you know over the past few years we have expanded our Kingdom for Kids playground projects to include substantial landscape improvements. We are asking for volunteers to assist fellow Rotarian Dr. Bill Bauta on landscape supervision and occasional maintenance and improvement that is needed on our existing projects at Smith Elementary, the Winston School, St. PJs and Stewart Elementary.

Details:

- Maintain landscaping projects at various Kingdom for Kids playground builds
- Various schedules and locations
- No experience necessary! Duties for all skill levels

Interested? Email assistant@rotarysa.org or call 222-8242, 11

Family of Rotary News

As you probably know, Joan Kearl's husband Mike passed away suddenly last week. The Express-News has a wonderful article about Mike in today's edition: Mike Kearl.

The details on the service left off the date. Services will be Tuesday, March 24 at 5:00 pm at the Stieren Theater in the Ruth Taylor Theater Building on Trinity's campus. Please plan on arriving by 4:30 if you attend.

For membership information call 210-222-8242, x11
